

Further consolidation of media ownership is not in the best interests of US citizens. The FCC should be encouraging diverse ownership and the variety of opinions it fosters, NOT monopolies of media ownership. The proposed easing of ownership regulations is wrong and I am against it.